

EAB Core

11/29/10

Cati's House--A cold, cold day

Meeting Called To Order: 7:35 PM

Present:

Alyssa Hall

Anthony Rum

Cati Murillo

Christina Cobos

Cristina Cook-no

Russell Russo

Steven Wilson

Andrew Chang

Andrew Dunn

Brooke Roehrick-no

Cassie Belden

Cora Hirashiki-no

Corie Radka-no

Dani Ziff-no

Daniel Garcia

Elizabeth Redd

Emily Williams

Emma Daugherty

Evanne St. Charles

Gerard Cadiz-late

Islay Nicklin-late

Jenny Marshall

Katie Kasatkina

Mark Agor

Natasha Weidner

Taylor Fulton

Teal Riege

New Business

- Teal/Dunn

- Last CORE meeting!
- Want to reflect on this quarter (leave actual survey till winter break)
- Dunn-this quarter has been incredible, lots of accomplishments and a good team
- Teal-amazed at how much we accomplished this quarter!
- Ezzez-got off to a strong start, we were all over the Daily Nexus
 - Still wishes we did more
 - Died off until Green Chef
- Natasha-done a great job with the social aspect, would be nice to get more serious and come back to our core principles
 - Focus on education next quarter
- Alyssa-Meatless Mondays goal is to focus on getting things done next quarter (with RHA!)
- Teal-what do you want to see for winter quarter?
- Jenny-wants to see more collaboration between working groups
- Katie-will postpone conference until spring so it can be cohesive and well organized, a collaboration between working groups
 - Suggestion-winter, have a showcase on everything EAB does (working with other campus groups, outside of EAB)
 - have collaborative projects going on through the year with other groups
- Chang-proud of the way the convergence turned out
 - Want to plan a Real Food week (maybe spring?); Meatless Monday, different events each day of the week
 - On both local and global scale (do a public food waste audit)
 - Evanne-can incorporate Real Food week into every working group we have
 - Huge collaborative effort to put on a big week
 - Taylor-Remember that spring quarter is busy; spread events out, plan well
- Steven-Sustainable business wants to work with Real Foods week
 - S. Business wants to run debates; can invite outside groups to participate
 - Wants topics for the debates
- Teal-publicize events!
- Jenny-The group structure can turn into Real Foods week working group
 - Have a team/committee to work on a project rather than a concept
 - Chang-seconded idea
- Dunn-Keep in mind the flow of the year
 - Build up community in Fall, focus in on topics during Winter (also the down point)
 - Planning big events in winter for spring
 - Don't feel pressured to put on big events Winter quarter as we're prepping for Spring and focusing in on topics
- Cassie-have movie screenings during Winter to keep people involved and educated
 - Next quarter should be educational but also fun, so people don't lose interest

- Wants to see CORE go to Yosemite for Spring break?!?!
 - Katie seconded idea
- Katie-Winter quarter, a different structure
 - Instead of having committees, have groups come together (outside of EAB) so EABers can be exposed to other organizations and opportunities
 - Formal dinner to bring together orgs
 - Outsourcing events put on by other groups as EAB events (sort of a correlation point) co-sponsorship
 - Events are not as attended as people are unmotivated; wait till a bit into the quarter and give members a calendar to the quarter (let people get on track once they get back to school)
- Taylor-Recyclemania is happening all of winter quarter!
 - Work on publicizing it during winter
- Teal/Dunn-Over winter break, think about what you want to see happen with EAB (stronger, bigger events?)
 - Leadership retreat--first weekend back in January
- Alyssa-wants to do a movie screening and a PB&J
 - With real food challenge and sustainable business
 - Ezzez-red carpet event for a PB&J dinner?
- Teal-news!
 - Dunn worked on the office, and the office is beautified!
 - EAB set of pictures from prior years lining the walls
- Cassie-bringing blanket for office
 - Phone cord is installed
 - Does anyone know how to do out-dialing? Ask CAB office (Evanne/Christina)
- Dunn-If you have workshop ideas, let Dunn/Teal know over break so it can be on the leadership retreat agenda
- Dunn-doing activity (Secret-Santa like)

Old Business

Dates

- December 2--You Matter, 10:00-3:00, The Arbor
- December 3--Waste Audit, South Hall
- December 3--International Potluck
- December 4--SFC Banquet

On The Bike Rack:

- Publicity materials to purchase

Meeting Adjourned: 7:59PM