 2. Prescreening: Happy Death Day 2- 2/7- Anthony: 110 people showed up, not many people went to get passes but showed up at the event, which is fine because gave passes there, WB piracy people were there to make sure people were not recording during the movie- worked well with us- respectful, posters were a problem because there was a miscommunication about what was going to be on the poster- went with quarter sheets

3. Noon Storke Show: Animal Man- 2/8- band was 30 minutes late because lost in parking, production was fast with soundcheck, played for an hour, extra cart of yerba, ended the show at 1pm

H. OLD BUSINESS

1. X'19- 5/19- Kailah: 2nd slot Artist A with Artist B at contingency, but Artist A passed so will send out offer to Artist B, will vote on slots 2 and 4 today, 1 and 3 offers have been sent and still waiting, Artist C is still contingency for Artist D, sent out offer to Artist E for the Warm Up
Meagan: Artist F and Artist G would be best possible slot 2 options
Emma: Artist G would be someone who is rising artist and will only get more popular, for the students who do not listen to him might go just bc of who he is Adam: we still need an EDM artist so Artist H would be in range
Chue: agrees with Artist H, he will be a great intro before headliner, calm yet exciting
Nathaly: Artist H is high energy and uses live instruments
Jessica: Artist G because he would do well here
Elizabeth: Artist I should still be considered bc it would be cool to have Latina artist and pop
Anthony: Artist I would be a good option because her price range would be great and we would save money to use for slot 2, could focus on smaller electronic acts
Kailah: would rather keep Artist I as contingency for slot 3
Jazz: went over stats, Artist G has largest name pull, contingency should be Artist I as third slot
Kiyomi: Artist G best option but Artist J would be better contingency for slot 2, Artist J crosses genres and is more popular and stronger numbers on social media
Sarah: Artist J better for our demographic and more famous than Artist G on spotify, and he is ranked higher on more sites, more famous in LA, songs are more popular, would feel comfortable moving Artist D up in the list, but would be bad if we had 3 hip-hop artists
Chue: Artist J is wanted at so many college campuses, his songs are very popular
Meagan: Artist G is more up and coming, sells out his shows
Nathaly: Artist D is best out of electronic artists on the list, would be interested in looking into back to back sets
Kailah: price for 4th slot depends if we have a 5th slot, good opportunity for bands--good daytime vibe
Bryan: Artist K just won a grammy and would be popular, but might be a problem bc played in SB recently
Meagan: Artist L or Artist M
Emma: Artist M would add cool chill vibe to the event

Jazz: Artist N have not put out an album since 2016 but releasing songs so maybe an album is coming, high energy, name pull

Kelsey: need band for slot 4, Artist N, Artist O or Artist P--name pull

Bryan: Artist Q has over 3 million monthly listeners, sold out 1400 capacity show in SF, played Holy Ship with Artist R, will play at Crossed, played at Hard, 19 years old and big producer, great up and coming artist to feature, plays a lot of instruments, would be very entertaining

Kiyomi: Artist S or Artist M would be best options for band genre, Artist S is pretty big name and sold out 5k capacity, Artist S is crazy energy and might start moshing

Waylon: push for Artist T, checking stats for SF 92,000 is pretty big, would be a better option than Artist U

Nathaly: 5th slot is not crowd heavy because doors open at the same time as slot starts, Artist V would be more popular than Artist Q--played at Snow Globe, sells out more shows at higher capacity

Anthony: Artist S and Artist M best options for 5th slot, played Coachella and Flag Now, would bring a different crowd; Artist M more up and coming, on a bunch of different playlists

Bryan: agrees with Nathaly, Artist V would have better audience for SB and asking price is better

Elizabeth: Artist S- drew in a big crowd at Flog, more punk and do not cater to this genre

Meagan: agrees with Anthony and Elizabeth, just released an album that was received well, Artist M is more up and coming though

Kelsey: Artist P or Artist O have more listeners than Artist S
