Ongoing Issues

Under assessed students fees for Fall:

.96/1.37 overall under assessed for Fall will be collected in Winter.

I heard today from the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs, Margaret Klawuun that the administration is going to go assess these fees in the Winter cycle. All students enrolling in Winter will be receiving this message personally next week via email, but the short of it is that the Winter Bill for enrollment will include this fee that wasn't collected for Fall.

Administration has been working on finding a way to do this and they have in fact decided that it will be collected, as of today. Additionally, they wanted me to convey that the systems that assess these charges will be tightening up the processes.

KCSB'S Door Access:

My understanding is that student leadership for KCSB (Executive Committee) would rather go with the upgrade to their doors, than use the university's system. I've asked staff to seek out estimates so that we can bring them to ExComm; and meet with the university staff that do this work to fill in some more information.

KCSB's Website Development:

As I've mentioned in the past few meetings the issue with the department not having procurement delegated authority means that I cannot sign off on contracts exclusively based on student requests/needs. In this case, I've advised the KCSB/KJUC leadership to come to Senate to request that an exception to policy be requested if we want to contract with an outside vendor for website development, given that we have a web development team within AS. The checklist (guidance from procurement office) stipulates that this is one of the conditions that affects our signing with outside vendors. Given that I've not received written notice about next steps, we are doing our due diligence in this regard. I have, however, heard from the Vice Chancellor Margaret Klawuun's office and from President Hechler that we will be setting up a meeting in the near future to hammer out details.

AS Program Board's Delerium

Tickets sold out very rapidly on Monday and all looks to be well in hand regarding this coming weekend.

UCSA Lock-In Fee

I continue to make myself available in helping the EVPSA office in administering those funds this upcoming year. I believe that she will be reporting to you directly on this matter.

Campus Community Council's Resilient Love Series

I sit on the CCC for the VCSA office and as you are aware we've been partnering to bring proactive programming to the campus to affect and participate in campus climate. The next set of programs will include a Community Policing in the Communities of UCSB. This is the proposal that was submitted and approved by the CCC.

*Resilient Love in a Time of Hate
Community-Center Policing at UCSB
November 15th & 16th, 2016*

Outcomes

- Increase our collective awareness of the impact culture, bias and community-centered policing can have on our campus
- Develop a 3-year strategic plan outlined and rooted in the Seven Principles of Community-Centered Policing
- Introduce a train-the-trainer model to be implemented monthly by local students, law-enforcement, faculty, and administrators.

Seven Principles of Community-Centered Policing: Department of Justice Report

1. Ensure Transparency and Accountability
2. Invest in Training
3. Ensure Diversity
4. Proactively Engage Communities
5. Reject Militarization
6. Examine and Implement Good Models
7. Implement Technology and Tools for Oversight

CCC and the Presidential Election

Also at the CCC there was an expressed interest in having a forum with UCSB Political Science faculty to discuss with students and staff. I am also working with the EVPSA office to sponsor this event. We are tentatively scheduling this for November 7th, 2016. Will bring update as soon as the talent is confirmed.
