MDA's Fill The Boot

What? The Muscular Dystrophy Association and the local Fire Fighters will be joining together to raise money for local families and individuals living with any one of over 40 neuromuscular diseases (including ALS, also known as Lou Gherigs's Disease) On Saturday, the Fire Fighters will turn the intersections of the various cities participating into voluntary toll roads. Motorists that would like to contribute when stopped at the red light will toss pocket change into the empty fire boots, thereby “filling the boot.” On Sunday, we will be holding a Fire Fighter for ransom by putting him on top of a “cherry picker” lift and attempting to rescue him by raising funds. Their goal is to raise $25,000, which helps provide local families affected by a neuromuscular disease with medical equipment such as wheelchairs, leg braces, and communication devices among other much-needed equipment. It will also send children to MDS’s weeklong summer camp, fund research support groups, and a clinic at Cottage Hospital. If interested contact Allie Diaz at adiaz@mdausa.org or Ellie Stone at elissastone@umail.ucsb.edu.

CAB FOUNDATION MINUTES

Attendees:

Ellie Stone, CAB Vice Chair, Pam Van Dyk, CAB Advisor, CAB officers: Cassidy Zanko, Kelsey South, Britney Weinberg-Lynn, Cindy Davidson, Courtney Cervantes, Evan Ingardia, and Madeline Kokosinski. Leg council representatives Joel Rodriguez-Flores, AS External VP – Local, and Julia Stephanides, CAB Leg Council Rep.

1. America Reads and America Counts requested $6,000 from the CAB Foundation to increase hours allowed for student workers, and hire another tutor for the program. The organization gives students in the work-study program a job at local elementary schools, allowing them to acquire teaching experience while working for UCSB. The Foundation found the request to be out of the realm of the organization, as America Reads and Counts is not a volunteer group. The Foundation would like America Reads and Counts to seek the money from IV CRC. Cassidy Zanko motioned to table the request indefinitely, and Evan Ingardia seconded the motion. The members of the Foundation voted unanimously in agreement with the motion. The Foundation will revisit the request if not approved by IV CRC.
2. The Women's Center requested $2,000 to purchase gift cards for UCSB students and their dependent children. The money will purchase $50 UCSB Bookstore gift cards for the parents, and $50 Kaybee Toy gift cards for their children. It will directly affect undergraduate, single parents, Evan Ingardia motioned to vote, and Britney Weinberg-Lynn seconded the motion. The request was unanimously passed and the Foundation is awarding the Women's Center $2,000.
3. CAB requested money to purchase holiday gifts for a local low-income family. They are receiving information and working with IV Elementary School, to fulfill one family's holiday wishes. The project will directly affect one local family and indirectly affect any student who chooses to participate in the shopping, wrapping, giving etc. They are asking for $100 per person in the family, to be determined with Isla Vista Elementary. Cassidy Zanko motioned to vote, and Kelsey South seconded the motion. The request was passed unanimously, and the CAB Foundation is awarding the $100 per immediate family member.
