

Community Affairs Board Meeting #8: MINUTES
LAST MEETING of Fall Quarter!
December 5, 2006
HAPPY HOLIDAYS!!

Announcements/Speakers:

Β Academic Affairs Board

The Academic Affairs Board is making goodie bags for finals to pass out to students. CAB will be helping them assemble them tonight. They will be passed out in the 4 different locations tomorrow and they need volunteers to help do that!

Β Habitat for Humanity

Habitat for Humanity is looking for volunteers that will be here over the winter break. They are working on December 13, 15, 18, 19, 20, 21, and 22 as well as January 3, 5, 6, 10, 12, 13, 17, 19, 24, 26, 27, 31. They need both skilled and unskilled volunteers on any day, so if interested please e-mail volunteer@sbhabitat.org with multiple days you are willing to work. Work days are from 9am to 4pm but they can do shifts from 9-1 and 12-4. Visit their website at <http://sbhabitatforhumanity.org/volunteer.thm> for more information.

Β Blanket Drive

Kristianne Meisels is collecting money to buy blankets for the homeless people of IV to help them prepare for the colder weather. She will be donating the blankets next Wednesday, December 13 if any one would like to help distribute them. You can find out more information about the project on facebook or e-mail her at kmeiseles@umail.ucsb.edu to find out how to help and where to donate!

Β Karmesse

El Camino School is holding their annual Kermesse this Thursday, December 7. It provides parents an opportunity to get together, see the school and get involved. They are looking for volunteers to bring food, set up/decorate, serve food, clean up, and call restaurants for donations. If interested in helping please contact Lizzie Vitello at lvitello@goleta.k12.ca.us or 805-692-5574

Santa Barbara International Film Festival

What? Each year the Santa Barbara International Film Festival brings together a dedicated team of volunteers to help ensure Festival patrons and guests have the best film-going experience possible. They will begin reviewing volunteer applications for the 2007 Film Festival in December 2006. Volunteers ideally commit to several multiple-hour shifts during the 11 days of the Festival. In exchange, they become a vital member of the Santa Barbara Film Festival family, getting a chance to see some unique films and gain an exclusive hands-on, behind the scenes glimpse of the Film Festival in action. Approximately 400 full and part-time volunteers will be needed for the 2007 Festival. Volunteers do everything from helping with films, panel discussions, and special events, to taking tickets, helping with theatre operations, and doing office work. If you wish to volunteer for the 2007 Film Festival you must complete an online sign-up form, and attend an orientation meetings.
