  - Wednesday, February 16th, meet at the CAB office at 5:15 and you should be back by 7:30.

- Share-a-Smile with visit the Santa Barbara Convalescent Home with these lovely V-Day cards.
  - Sunday, February 13th from 2:30-5pm.

- There’s another Parent’s Night Out next week!! Come to I.V. Elementary to play with kids, eat pizza, and give parents a chance to get out and celebrate a belated Valentine’s date.
  - Thursday, February 17th from 6-8pm

- We are planning a DAWG Walk with the furry friends from project Dawg in front of the UCen this quarter. Project DAWG is an organization that works to help dogs find loving homes here in Goleta. During the DAWG Walk, we will walk homeless dogs in front of the UCen to introduce them to potential owners.
  - Contact James at jtandon@antinomian.net if interested.

On-Going Programs:
Breakfast Club will serve bagels and coffee to the homeless in St. Mark’s Church (6550 Picasso Rd., IV) every Thursday morning.
  - Contact Binh at bvuong@umail.ucsb.edu
  - Thursday, December 2nd at 8am at St. Mark’s.

Family Literacy Program will be pairing more students with local families to help elementary school children to practice their reading.
  - Contact flp UCSB@yahoo.com for more info.

Transition House loves your help with children’s after school programs. Quise is now making Monday trips too!
  - Contact Quise at Quise84@aol.com or 510-414-6559
  - Meet every Monday and/or Thursdays at 3:30 in front of Campbell Hall. Quise will drive you downtown, and you should be back by 7pm.

CAB would like to help you form teams to serve weeknight meals to the homeless of Santa Barbara through the Community Kitchen organization.
  - To form your own team, go to http://my.calendars.net/communitykitchen and reserve your day and times!

Friendship Manor has pool parties, ice cream socials, and movie nights that they like college students to attend. Help with the events and stay to visit with the residents. Call the front desk at 968-0771.

The Braille Institute offers a variety of services and enrichment classes for the visually impaired. Assist teachers in exercise or craft classes, work at their front desk or special library, or tutor youth.
