

Environmental Affairs Board Core Meeting
Monday, January 8, 2007

Meeting commenced at 8:10

Absent: Jessica

*At the end of the quarter we would like to elect new officers for next year in order to train them so that they can start off where we left off.

-some worry that this may cut someone out that will get in last quarter

-maybe find officers for the "main officers" and keep the rest open or do it at the beginning of spring quarter

*agreed to not bring this up at tomorrow's meeting but to continue discussing it next meeting

*Break Out Groups Tomorrow

-changing general term to Working Groups : all voted yes

*Earth Day will be April 14th probably be from 1-7

-info booths

-art decorations

-more involvement

-also have other campus groups be involved

-donations and national orgs that might want to help out to maybe plant trees etc so that people remember what it is about, beer garden (lessens trash and only can drink at the garden), improve iv campaign city repair, light bulb exchange program, painting and a DJ for downtime. Good to remember what Earth Day is all about

-Zero waste event, everything is compostable or recyclable and it is a theme for everybody.

-Budget for it is still to be determined

*AS sustainability

*Enviro Ed

*Outreach

*New Interest Meeting

-part of the meeting will be specifically to people that are new to the club

(23rd)

-Goals for Working Groups

*Beach Cleanup

Jan noon-2, Feb 24th maybe taking a boat to SC. The Ocean Conservancy you clean a beach once a month then tell them what you picked up and it goes into a data base

-Sat tree planting 9am bagel cafe it will be at iv elem

-Sunday GNAW they want to create path and creating signs

-Monday is MLK there will be a hike, there will be a car pool (need volunteers)

-Adopt a block on Wednesday?

-Writing Congressmen

*Email Ryan with Dates!!!

Tomorrows Meeting:

-All the working groups set goals for the quarter

-If people could come to the meetings early to help set up the meeting that'd be swell!

-Move the signs out tonight

-Every officer should introduce themselves