Description: Global Medical Brigades mobilize student volunteers and professionals to empower communities in developing countries with programs that improve quality of life while respecting local culture and improving the environment. In June 2010, UCSB's GMB will be visiting Panama for our fourth successful year. Our volunteers make an impact on communities and gain real life experience in international medicine. Our goal is to inspire other leaders to become involved in our organization (as well as the other Global Brigades opportunities we hope to become established at UCSB) and to proactively seek a way to improve the quality of life of others.

Description: Global Medical Brigades mobilize student volunteers and professionals to empower communities in developing countries with programs that improve quality of life while respecting local culture and improving the environment. In June 2010, the UCSB chapter of GMB will be visiting Central America (Panama) for our fourth successful year. Our volunteers have had the incredible opportunity in years past to make a tangible impact on communities while gaining real life experience in the field of international medicine. We have treated thousands of patients in the past three years and are considered an extremely strong team by the GMB staff.
