Event Title: Project Santa

Event Lead: Juan A. Pimentel (School Age Program Coordinator)
(805) 968-1624
juanp@ivyp.org

Start Date: Friday Dec. 4, 2009

End Date: Friday Dec. 4, 2009

Event Location: Isla Vista Elementary School

Description: The purpose of Project Santa is to give the children of Isla Vista Elementary School a Christmas full of happiness. Many of the students who attend this elementary come from low income families and do not always get the Christmas they wish for. There is a toy drive in order for us to raise toys for the event, which takes place in the school's cafeteria. We decorate the cafeteria to make it look like the North Pole. The children participate in activities: cookie decorating, bingo, tree decorating, and a station for Santa Claus, which is where they receive a gift.

sarahsousa@hotmail.com

Start Date: Friday Nov. 20, 2009

End Date: Friday Nov. 20, 2009

Event Location: Student Resource Center

Description: We want to create an event where people have an alternative to the nightlife in Isla Vista as well as meet others who want to do the same. Even though our club name stands for Chinese Student Association, we reach out to other nationalities and ethnicities to bring a friendship amongst the races. We bring to the community a Masquerade Game Night. We will have a Masquerade Ball in the Multipurpose Room of the SRB throughout the whole night while games are occurring at the SRB Forum. These games include Mahjong- a traditional Chinese Game played during people's pastimes; Texas Hold 'em; as well as Blackjack.
