Start Date: Thursday May. 13, 2010
End Date: Thursday May. 13, 2010
Event Location: Embarcadero Hall

We propose to host standup comedian, Eliot Chang, to do his One Man Comedy Concert here at UCSB. We believe this mixture of comedy and diversity will be a good tribute to the annual Asian and Pacific Islander Heritage Month of May. Eliot will begin with his 1 hour stand up comedy concert which appeals to the entire campus since there is no ethnic theme. Then he will hold his interactive 1 hour Q&A workshop "Asians in the Media" where we will dive into diversity issues. Admission is free and this event is open to all students campus-wide.

The film is a very nuanced, human, and riveting story. It chronicles three years in the life of Hamza "Jason" Perez. Hamza is a Puerto Rican Muslim, family man, rapper, social activist and interfaith chaplain. Beyond the national PBS premiere and national and international screenings, which included SF, NYC, DC, Doha, London, Toronto and Eastern Europe thus far, the film's director, producers and advisors believe the film can help communities and classrooms tackle issues such as diversity, national security, spirituality and popular culture, which is why we need to bring the film to UCSB.

A fun, interactive atmosphere to help educate students about communication, birth control, knowing their values, abstinence, safer sex practices, pleasure, and preventative health care. We hope to give students the confidence they need to assert themselves in relationships so they can prevent unhealthy situations. We will be inviting different groups to help us stress the importance of being comfortable and responsible with one's sexuality in order to make healthy choices. We also hope to inform students of all the resources available to them on campus and in the community. Our goal is to reach as many students as possible through providing information, giving away free goodie bags and t-shirts, and creating an all around fun, relaxed atmosphere to encourage students to be comfortable learning and talking about these issues.

Description: A conference that focuses on educating, discussing, and brainstorming solutions for some of the most critical issues facing students of color and other underrepresented communities today. Our theme this year is “The Collective Conscious: Building Solidarity, Igniting Action, and Reviving Our Public Education.” With this conference SCORE hopes to share what we learned at the UC-wide Student of Color Conference (SOCC) to the UCSB community and also engage in a new dialogue with students, professors, and other members of the larger Santa Barbara community about issues specific to our experience and community.
