B. PUBLIC FORUM

- a. Jamie C/Mary C- Their ocho pasos program contributes to helping get a healthier bmi and waist circumference. They tell you what to do with the health screenings results they give you with one on one diabetes consultations. This program is usually held in person, but now it is held via zoom. They also distribute healthy food at the YMCA on Tuesdays to about 50 people from food banks. They also hold yoga sessions on Saturdays for Isla Vista Residents. Basically this program teaches people facts about diabetes and how to prevent getting diabetes or how to manage it if you have it.
- b. Maria - Wants IVCRC to fund 65 memberships which is about 23,000 that allow recreational activities, health and wellness activities, and academic help for the Isla Vista community. Wants to get exercise equipment for her health and wellness classes, to increase physical activity during COVID times. Also wants to fund Zumba classes at the St. Youth Center.
