 - b. Will update them next week on progress, mostly on whether or not Pardall Center approves our request.
 - c. Will not pursue this option unless all other options have been exhausted.
- vi. Proposal: Archive finished emails from the inbox in the general IVCRC account.
 - Definition of "finished":

- a. All relevant board members have read the email and have decided not to do anything with it.
 - b. Topic of the email has been resolved.
 - c. Topic is no longer relevant.
 - d. Topic was never relevant (e.g. spam).
- Reason: Would make relevant (i.e., still unresolved) emails more visible, reducing the chances that we accidentally glance over them.
- What do you all think?
- vii. Contributed 20 seconds to IVCRC promo video.
- viii. Exploring interest for an IVCRC Minecraft server.
 - Not open to the general community—would be a place for only board members to hang out.
 - If there's interest:
 - a. Will explore options for servers.
 - b. Will pay for server costs from my own pocket—would only benefit us, so no point in seeking reimbursement from AS or IVCRC.
- ix. A friend sent me a list of resources to learn more about the Chumash in Isla Vista.
 - I've compiled them into a Google Doc alongside a link to Chumash land acknowledgements (latter provided by Allina):
<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1bzbLLn6q4vHjJWEIFsni4Ef4E2H8gpYCVn4rJfGpK3c/edit>
