Acceptance of Proxies, Tardies or Absences:

Agenda/ Public Forum:

1. freshStart Community Café

freshStart is committed to creating a space that serves a cultural hub to the UCSB campus and local community. The owners imagine a unique environment where people can sit down and enjoy their meal over conversation and cultural exchange. A community space designed by art students as part of a storefront business creates a unique opportunity for current students of all disciplines to invest in the shape of their local community.

Requesting: $8,000

2. Peer Health Interns Student

The peer health interns of Students Teaching Alcohol and other Drug Responsibilities (STAR), Healthy Eating and Living (HEAL) and Sex and Relationships (S&R) will be working in conjunction to promote healthy lifestyles throughout the IV Community. Project Hydrate, Operation Snack Attack and Condom Alert will take place on a Friday night in IV on various blocks of Del Playa. They will be passing out water bottles, crackers and condoms to community members who pass by.

Requesting: $240.00 for STAR, $549 for HEAL, and $877.20 for Sex and Relationships

3. Isla Vista Youth Projects

IVYP Projects was founded in 1971 and has served community families for 36 years.

The agency was funded by AS every year since 1981. All of the money received from AS is used to cover student employment. The program serves over 360 children per day.

Requesting - $10,000

4. Queer Pride Festival

Queer Pride Week takes place the last week of April/May. It takes place in Anisq'Oyo Park on May 2, 2008 from 4pm to 7pm. Three Artists are scheduled to come: Dawn Thomas, Jay Brannan, Goddess & She.
Requesting - $13,350

5. ChillaVista

On May 31, 2008, UCSB's ChillaVista will put on a dynamic and interactive community festival. This will be ChillaVista's fifth festival, and third spring celebration. This spring festival will encourage community interaction and empowerment through the exploration of art, music, media and food. The goal is to bind the residents of Isla Vista into a cohesive, unified group working toward an improved public image, while also celebrating diversity in the Isla Vista community.
Requesting - $19,561
