- Don't Cut Us Out Campaign meeting tonight at 9:30pm 2nd floor SRB
- Doreen Farr's IV Office Opening tomorrow, Wednesday 4-6pm
- Commission on Student Well-Being Open House, Wednesday 11am-1pm

III. Old Business (30min)

- Sunday's Gelb Doorknocking
 - Doorknocking and giving people bagels and cream cheese was really successful, got a lot of complaints from tenants about privacy, entering without proper notice, landlord lurking around his properties at night, reports of discrimination, racist and sexist comments. Next steps: LQ will contact Lieutenant Olmstead regarding hidden camera detectors and how to approach this issue and keep tenants safe.
- Saturday's Rental Housing Roundtable Strategy Session
 - Coalition of SB County orgs, IVTU included, has come together to push a new Tenant Displacement Assistance Ordinance. May be introduced at a March Board of Supervisors meeting soon. LQ and Mina attended Saturday's strategy session.
- Thursday's Social Host Ordinance Community Forum, official submission by IVTU to Board of Supervisors and to the Daily Nexus Opinion Editor by Wednesday at 2pm
 - Raquel will draft both of these.
- Committee Updates:
 - Lease review workshops: Next Monday 8-9pm at Loma Paloma; next Tuesday 8-9pm at Linda Vista; next Wednesday 9-10pm at San Nic. Denny and Sara and Chris will present, LQ will go get the pizzas at Costco.

IV. New Business (10min)

- IVTU pens/highlighters
 - motion by LQ to fund 1,000 pens and 1,000 highlighters, total $1,200. (2nd by David). Approved.
- Funding request from EVPSA Office
 - We'll look at the applications and possibly fund any people who are interested in Isla Vista and/or tenants issues.
