Recap of last quarter:

- Funded a variety of different organizations
  - If you are a part of any org or if you know of any org that would need funding and their mission statement aligns with that of HRB’s please feel free to send them over to our meetings
- Indigenous People’s Day
- Prisoner Book Program

Human Rights Week

- Week 6
- February 10-14

Overall theme: Human Rights At Home

- We have become desensitized to human rights violations
- Taking abstract concepts and bringing it home to UCSB students
- We want to make these things more applicable

Themes for each day:

- How to support the LGTBQ+ community (MON)
  - Collaboration with the RCSGD and QComm
  - Trans violence
  - Importance of Pronouns
  - Ally identity
- Houselessness (TUES)
  - Wildfires and climate change and the impact it has on houselessness
  - Definition of Houselessness and ways to combat it
  - Wildfires/climate change
    - EJF
- Hard Time (WED)
  - Focused on illuminating the ways that various systems fail to provide people with the means to succeed and the ways that many people's experiences have been silenced
  - Incarceration rights
    - Book Drive - Prisoner Book Program
    - Mental Health
    - Human trafficking
- “Help” (THURS)
  - Illuminating the ways that the United States has historically interjected itself in international affairs and the affairs of other nations under the guise of "help" but actually contributing immensely to:
    - Genocide
    - Neocolonialism
    - War crimes
- Highlighting Stories at Home (FRI)
  - Gathering stories from international students, undocumented students, first generation students, and general underrepresented minority groups to compile in a documentary so they can share their stories
    - Video documentary
    - Physical print publication