2. Announcements

-Liv discussed what the purpose of Take Back the Night is; she described it as an activist group stopping sexual violence. The organization meets every Thursday at 5pm in the Women's Center (SRB).

-Jenna introduced the new feminist group on campus called Students trying to Understand Feminism. The group meets Monday's from 12-1pm in South Hall room 4631.

-Tiffany from the Women's Fellowship announced that the organization meets every Monday at 6 pm in the AVCRC, in the SRB. They discuss women's issues regarding God.

-Alex announced that A.S Congress will be having a dinner on October 14th at 5-8:30pm. Issues compiled from student leaders will be discussed and form coalitions with students to end these issues or find solutions.

-Noemi announced that BPRO, KP, and HaU will be having a "Vote to Bowl" on October 17th in order to get students to register to vote.

3. Recap

- A.S Womyn's Comm is an organization that is redefining feminism. We provide a safe space for women.
- We are trying to educate women on the propositions, prop 4 and 8, and getting more women to vote.
- We are also trying to empower women and form strong bonds with women leaders.
- We are trying to compile a list of classes where we can announce the propositions.
- We are also trying to compile a list of women's groups so that we can work together.
- We are also trying to let women's groups know that we can provide funding for an event only if it is related to a women's issue.

-Womyn's Unite dinner cancelled.

4. Goals

-Each member was asked to think about what they would like to see from A.S Womyn's Comm

-One of our recent projects is the Newsletter.

NEXT MEETING

-Will be discussing what members would like to see be done in the organization.
